MADE AT HOME

The wail of disappointment which goes up from George Mills in The News this morning is something pitiful to sympathetic hearts.

Mr. Mills and his henchmen have for some years devoted themselves to framing up a fusion ticket for the republicans to knock over.

This time their plots failed, and they are expressing their disappointment in the News, that laments bitterly that we are not able to put up a better ticket.

If the readers of the Appeal who happen to have any back files of the News about the house, will consult those of previous years, they will find some nice bunches of complimentary taffy handed out to the fusionists when the ticket nominated at the fusion convention has been previously framed up in a back room by George Mills, Dr. Lee and the republican central committee.

The ticket don't suit the republicans because they had no hand in the making of it.

The ticket suits every democrat and silver man because it is made up of the representative men of those parties, nominated by men who were in the convention to name a winning ticket, a ticket composed of the real members of those organizations.

The fusion party has never failed to win when it has put up its own ticket, and it has never failed to lose when it let the republican committee put it up.

The victory this fall will teach the fusion party a lesson in practical politics which the Appeal sincerely hopes they will not fail to profit by in the future.

It will teach the silver men and democrats of Ormsby to patronize home manufacture.

THE WORM TURNED

UNABLE to stand for the platform, unable to reconcile himself to a campaign with candidates he knew nothing about, unable to stultify himself before the eyes of the people of the state of Nevada, E. D. L. Curtis, one of the best men in the state has withdrawn from the republican ticket on which he was nominated for state treasurer.

The Pluche "Record" announces, with authority, that Curtis has declined the nomination. The "Record" gives as the reason for the action of Mr. Curtis, the ill health of that vigorous old gentleman; but those who know Mr. Curtis, know his sterling integrity and his patriotism, understand that his excuse is merely a pretext.

E. D. L. Curtis is too true a man to allow himself to be used to hot stir up a ticket, confessedly weak, or to stultify himself by subscribing to a platform that means nothing to the people of Nevada but vague promises of a reform in state management, a reform that would benefit nobody and in fact would raise the tax rate, steadily beaten down by democratic administration.

Mr. Curtis is to be congratulated. It takes a man of great courage to make the step he has made.

The instance shows again the state of republican party affairs in this commonwealth, and state indeed, when a man of the integrity of Mr. Curtis cannot support the ticket by making a campaign on the platform and under the management announced and selected this fall.

Geo. Mills, late chairman of the republican central committee, has been accused of many things, but he has always managed, good loser he is, to keep his nominees in line after the convention.

But then Mills is a candidate himself this fall and Mr. Turrittin, the new chairman has his work cut out for him. Mills, by accepting office at the hands of a democratic governor, is in a peculiar position, and his defeat is a matter of certainty.
